

THE FAITHFULNESS AND LOVE OF GOD

(RUTH CH. 4)

What has stood out to you so far as we have read the book of Ruth?

Recap: research – what are the three verses where the Hebrew word hesed is used in the book of Ruth. Discuss their significance.

Why does the nearer Kinsman Redeemer pass on the offer of the land? (Vs 5-6)

Why do you think Boaz is willing to take the risk that the other Kinsman Redeemer won't?

What do you think is the significance of the blessing and prayer for Ruth and Boaz in vs 11-12.

Does God fulfill this? How?

Why do you think the conclusion of the story focusses so much on what this child means to Naomi?

How does this book encourage those going through hard times of pain and grief?

Why do the women praise the Lord in vs 14-15?

Where is God in the book of Ruth?

Where is God in your life and in our world now?
